USRRC - A Record of the United States Road Racing Championship 1963 - 1968

by Mike Martin

with a Foreword by George Follmer, 1965
USRRC Champion

This is the first complete history of the USRRC, with stories of each race and complete results. It will have over 400 pages and 500 photos, with a price of $60, plus $5 shipping.

This features cars like the Cobra, which dominated the Manufacturers races and then took on the purpose-built sports races like Scarab, Cooper, and Lotus. Also featuring the great race courses of America: Bridgehampton; Watkins
Glen; Road America; Mid Ohio, Riverside; Laguna Seca
and Pacific Raceways. You will read about: Jim Hall's Chaparral dominating the 1964 season, then barely losing out to George Follmer's under two-liter Lotus-Porsche in 1965; Charlie Parsons using a Genie and McLaren to win the 1966 championship; and Mark Donohue winning in 1967 and 1968
with a Lola T70 and McLaren M6A.

Orders received before November 15 get a $10 discount.
